Tarik Benouarka Composer & Opera Creator

Born in Algiers, Tarik Benouarka grew up in France where he studied music at the Conservatoire
He began very young a exceptional international career as a musician and composer working for many great stars of the french, european or international music industry.

He developed his passion for all forms of classical or contemporary music, drawing on his experiences to create his language and signature as symphonist, before entering the world of opera, in which he expresses all his passions: music, poetry, song, dramaturgy and all performing musical arts.

Poet and playwright, his musical life has been influenced by his dual culture, which is both Eastern and Western and has inspired his path as a complete artist and musician.
